

HealthAI - Data Flow Diagram

This document provides a high-level overview of the Data Flow Diagram (DFD) for the HealthAI system. It outlines the external entities interacting with the system, the major processes within the system, the data stores used, and the data flows between these components. This overview serves as a foundation for understanding the system's architecture and data handling processes.

